One of the highest honors a person can receive from the American Association of Colleges of Nursing is the Sr. Bernadette Armiger Award, which recognizes a nursing leader who has made significant contributions to AACN and its goals, to nursing education, and to the advancement of the profession.

The award honors Sr. Bernadette Armiger for her distinguished service to AACN and to recognize and encourage efforts toward the advancement of nursing education and practice.

Criteria for selection include the following:
• Active in and given service to AACN while serving as a representative of a member institution (“Active” indicates attendance at meetings and “service” indicates service on committees, board of directors, as an officer, etc.)
• National recognition for significant contributions to nursing education
• Scholarship, leadership, and advancement of the nursing profession
• Service as an exemplary role model in nursing

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF NOMINATIONS IS JUNE 6, 2014

Recipients will be honored at the 2014 Fall Semiannual Meeting in Washington, DC on October 27, 2014.

For a complete nomination packet or more information, contact AACN Membership Director Beth Aronson at (202) 463-6930, ext. 263 or at baronson@aacn.nche.edu.

For information on award criteria and submitting a nomination, visit www.aacn.nche.edu/membership/awards/sister-bernadette-armiger.